Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	Operating Systems Match & Label	Name:Teacher:
2. Chromebook 3. Many other computers C. Chrome OS Next, draw and label the following words on the computer screen below: Home screen - the main screen of a computer, tablet, or mobile device Window - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some information Henu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	latch the operating system to the computer that it runs on.	Date:
3. Many other computers C. Chrome OS Next, draw and label the following words on the computer screen below: Home screen - the main screen of a computer, tablet, or mobile device Window - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some information Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	1. Apple Computer	A. Windows
Next, draw and label the following words on the computer screen below: Home screen - the main screen of a computer, tablet, or mobile device Window - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some information Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	2. Chromebook	B. macOS
Home screen - the main screen of a computer, tablet, or mobile device Nindow - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some information Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	3. Many other computers	C. Chrome OS
Window - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some information Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program BUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	lext, draw and label the following words on the computer scree	n below:
Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	lome screen - the main screen of a computer, tablet, or mobile	device
Menu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer or a program Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happen con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer Desktop - home screen or first landing page with icons and a menu bar	Vindow - an area of the screen that pops up to give you some in	nformation
con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to open a file or program GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	1enu - a list of choices you can make when using the computer	or a program
GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, and buttons that can be clicked on to use the different programs and files in a computer	Button - a shape that you can click on to make something happe	en
ise the different programs and files in a computer	con - a small picture on a home screen that you can click on to o	open a file or program
	GUI (Graphical User Interface) - a system of windows, pictures, a	and buttons that can be clicked on to
Desktop - home screen or first landing page with icons and a menu bar	se the different programs and files in a computer
	Desktop - home screen or first landing page with icons and a me	enu bar